DI RUDINI'S REPLY. A Copy Received by Secretary Blaine Res

THE MATTER DISCUSSED AT LENGTE AT THE CABINET MEETING-THE ITALIAN MINISTER CONSIDERED TO HAVE COME DOWN FROM HIS The official literature upon the subject of the

New Orleans lynching was augmented this morning by the receipt by Secretary Blaine of morning by the receipt by Secretary Blaine of the reply of the Italian government to his note of Wednesday evening. It seems that his communication, addressed and sent to Marquis Imperiali as being in charge of the legation here, was cabled at once to Rome and there read and scanned by the minister of state. Marquis Rudini replied last night by cable, addressing his note to Marquis Imperiali, with instructions to hand it to Mr. Blaine.

This was done at about 10 o'clock this morning and the document, which was couched in pure Italian, was sent at once over to the State Department to be translated by the expert word-jugglers of that institution.

WAITING FOR THE TRANSLATION.

WAITING FOR THE TRANSLATION. The Secretary spent the morning at his house and waited there until the letter had been translated and a copy of it had been sent, together with the original, back to him.

Then, armed with all of the documents in the case, he walked over to the White House, where the cabinet had been in session for nearly an hour.

As he went up on the portice he was met by half a dozen newspaper men, who unanimously wanted to know when the letter was to appear. Simply replying that it should be made public to all at once he passed upstairs to the cabinet

THE LETTER PULLY DISCUSSED. It is understood that the letter was discusse in all of its details and the situation was thor oughly reviewed by the President and his adoughly reviewed by the President and his advisers. Information from Rome is to the effect that in the note Marquis di Rudini says that Italy has asked only for the prompt institution of the regular judicial proceedings against the guilty parties at New Orleans, realizing that it would have been absurd to claim punishment for the offenders without a regular trial. He adds that the incident will have its end when the federal government declares in unequivocal language that ernment declares in unequivocal language that the prosecutions shall begin, and only then. Meanwhile the Italian government is glad to note that the United States has acknowledged the fact that indemnity is due, under the ex-isting treaty with Italy, to the families of the victims of the mob.

was very carefully chosen and the acknowledgment was in the abstract. There is no money in the hands of the State Department available for the purposes of indemnity and Mr. Blaine cannot give assurance that the next Congress will appropriate money for that purpose. The most he can do is, what he has done, acknowledge the principle of indemnity under certain circumstances and open another opportunity for a misunderis, what he has done, acknowledge the principle of indemnity under certain circumstances and possibly to promise that Congress will be asked to make the appropriation. The next Congress is of a different political complexion from the administration, and while politics may not enter into a question of this sort, yet the administration cannot promise what a democratic House will do in the matter of making any sort of an appropriation or say beforehand what view they may take of any diplomatic controversy.

No SLEET LAST NIGHT.

The uncertainty and fear last night has proven an awful strain on both the strikers and it itizens. No sleeping was done in the entire region, but crowds paraded the streets or gathered in knots at corners or disappeared in bunches over the dark hills, leaving a doubt as to their destination and intentions. The foreigners were quiet, but always in crowds, and the momentary fear of an outbreak from the thousands which an entire regiment could not quell was only dissipated by the first streaks of early dawn.

TEN PEATER SOLET.

When asked what he had to say, he said: "The servit field it; God forgive me. All you nigger? take warning of me. Good-bye."

The sheriff and his assistants tied his arms and feet and adjusted the noose and death cape. Bev. Montague read a benediction and repeated a prayer for forgiveness; and exactly at 10.00 the trap was sprung by the sheriff. His need was broken by the fall and Coroner Hammond buried by the county.

The streets and walls of the jail yard wer limed with a muttering, inquisitive crowding mostly negroes, who seemed to think the affait was a special affront to their race rather than justice done.

The bodies, followed by workers from the Mount Pleasant branch railroad, will go to Scottdale tomorrow morning by special train. They have ordered eighteen cars for the purpose. At Scottdale they will be joined by workers from every plant in the region. The funeral will call together a larger number of men than ever gathered together in this region. The procession will proceed to the cemetery, where all the leaders will make orations, the character of which may be easily imagined.

"The dirge of the bands of the funeral will be the knell of more people than the martyrs." was the remark of one leader. "I'm afraid there will be hell tomorrow," said Peter Wise, "you do not know how terribly these men feel this evening. They are now beyond control. We repudiate any responsibility for the future action of the strikers."

The Presence of the Military Has a Reassuring Effect in the Coke Regions.

Mount Pleasant, Pa., April 3.—Quiet reigned throughout the coke regions this morning. No outbreak has occurred since the fatal raid yesterday morning, and while the situation is still grave the presence of the militia has had a reassuring effect upon the people. Two regiment, with over 500 men, reached here shortly after midnight, and the tenth regiment, with nearly as many more men, arrived upon the scene a little later. Adjutant General McCleiland and Brigadier General Wiley are in command, and will remain as long as there is any danger of another raid.

Forbes was tried and convicted before Judge Wright, in the criminal court of Baltimore, or January 28 last, on the charge of committing wictims of the mob.

A MISAPPREHENSION OF FACT.

If this summary of the premier's note be correct it contains a grave misapprehension of the facts as to indemnity, for Mr. Blaine has only said that financial reparation is granted by the United States only after the right to receive money has been proven. He has not admitted that this proof is complete.
